

Mike Frasier

Dan Lipka

Dave Lipka

Grant Werner

*Ladies
– here's your chance.
Do something for charity
and reward yourself
in the process.*

Matt Byrne

Brett Penager

Rob Bennett

Eric Wickman

RiverFest Bachelor Charity Auction

6 p.m. Sunday June 8

Harris Riverside Stage

(E. Main at 1st Avenue, across from St. Charles City Hall)

Make your selection from a twentysomething to a silver fox. Bid generously to win dinner and an evening with one of our charming, attractive and eligible bachelors.

Choose from a firefighter to a chief marketing officer...from a restaurateur to a real estate developer...from an executive chef to a wine merchant...even twins. Winning bidders will be treated to dinner and a night out with their bachelor – 100% of proceeds from the auction going to the bachelor's favorite charity. Opening bids from $1 to $50. Leslie

Harris of 95.9 The River will Emcee and Beverly Callison of Callison Auction Services will call the bids. Among bachelors up for auction are twins Dave and Dan Lipka, owners of Boondocks Bar & Grill in West Chicago; Mike Frasier, owner of The Wine Exchange, St. Charles; Grant Werner, Colonial Cafe's executive chef; Rob Bennett, medical sales, of Plano; Matt Byrne, St. Charles fireman; Eric Wickman, Wickman Properties, St. Charles; and Brett Penager, Chiro One Wellness Centers, CMO, of Chicago. (See web site for bios and pics: www.prideofthefox.com.) Charities selected by the bachelors include CASA, Lazarus House, Greenwood School for Boys and Girls, and American Heart & Lung Association. Winning bidders and bachelors receive perks from the business community – spa treatments, massages, hair cuts and more. Stage entertainment Sunday includes RiverFest's own Idol Search at 1 p.m. (adults), Ju Ju Mintrels at 3:30 p.m. and Hi Infidelity (REO, Journey, Styx tribute band) at 7 p.m.

www.PrideoftheFox.com